

The current strike by the UAW International Union affecting General Motors operations does not include UAW Local 933 / Allison Transmission employees.

All employees are to report to their daily work assignments as normal.